Increased Number of New Cases of Yellow Fever.

TWO DEATHS AT NEW ORLEANS

Twelve New Cases Which Are Widely Scattered Over the City — Increased Number of Cases at Mobile — Another Death at Biloxi — Seven New Cases at Ocean Springs.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 23.—Yellow fever is increasing in this city, and during the past 24 hours there have been 12 new cases reported and two deaths. The new cases for the most part are widely scattered and several of them at least do not seem to have been the outcome of local infection. It is apparent that the microbes brought over in baggage from Biloxi and Ocean Springs are still incubating, and that many more cases of fever are to be looked for. The system of quarantine and sanitation in vogue here is unquestionably showing good results, and whatever spread there is of the sickness is confined to houses in which yellow fever already exists, or in the premises immediately adjoining.

The deaths were:
Dr. Joseph Lovell, aged 27 years, 7717 St. Charles avenue.

Miss Elizabeth Nussbaum, aged 17 years, 1300 Gake street.

The new cases are:
Alex Haley, 541 Dryades street.
Melville Ward, 1215 Josephine.
— Wood, 1435 Octavia.

S. C. Erceto, 118 Burthe.
Richard Freret, 1731 Second street.
W. P. Freret, 5520 Hurst street.
Louis Fritch, 1139 Felicina street.
Parke C. Hands, 1627 Octavia street.
Miss Sadie Hutchings, 412 Marais street.

Mrs. Warde, 1525 Josephine street.
Mrs. Chalmers, 526 Belle Castle street.
Waldo Pitkin, 1530 Esplanade.

Dr. Lovell's death has been expected for four days. He contracted the disease while attending a number of patients who were suffering with the Ocean Springs fever. He overworked himself, and when stricken his constitution had been so much shattered that the chances were against his recovery.

There were seven new cases reported at Ocean Springs yesterday and seven patients, who had been ill, were discharged. There are still 15 under treatment. The names of the new cases at Ocean Springs were not made public because the doctors said the sickness of each was extremely mild. Only one of the patients at the Springs, Mrs. Cubbage, is reported as still being in a somewhat dangerous condition.

At Biloxi, Michael Levy, aged 17, died of the fever. I. W. Swetnam, a prominent druggist of Biloxi, and his wife are among the new cases of sickness reported.

There are now 200 whites and negroes at the Fontainebleau detention camp. People are constantly arriving and a special train is making frequent trips between the infected towns and the camp. The patients in the quarantine hospital tents are doing well and are understood to be in no danger.

Mayor Flower convened the finance committee yesterday, and after a consultation with the city's fiscal agents, succeeded in securing the offer of $25,000 of immediate available money to be placed in the hands of the board of health to be used in prosecuting a vigorous war upon the fever.

Thirteen new cases and two deaths are reported at Edwards, Miss.

INCREASING AT MOBILE.

So Far There Have Been but Three Deaths

MOBILE, Sept. 23.—There was a slight increase in the number of new cases of yellow fever during the past 24 hours but this was offset by the announcement that there were no deaths to report, that five of the patients were discharged and that all the patients were doing well. There has been no death here since Saturday, last and the total number of deaths is three. The total number of cases is 34. The new cases are four in number, namely:

Father Daniel Murray, of St. Vincent's parish.

John H. Matthews, Church street near Marine.

John Shea, Charles street near Selma. Paul Violette, a child, corner of Franklin and Augusta streets.

YELLOW FEVER IN LOUISVILLE.

A Refugee From Mobile Taken Sick With the Disease.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 23.—The second case of yellow fever to develop in Louisville was yesterday announced by Health Officer White. The first case was that of Frank De Rumsey, who died at an infirmary in the city on Aug. 16. Mr. De Rumsey came here from Ocean Springs, Miss. Soon after his arrival he was taken sick. He was immediately removed to the infirmary, where he died in a few days. Every precaution was taken and there was no spread of the disease.

The second case of the disease was reported by Health Officer White yesterday afternoon. The patient is John McDougall, a machinist in the Louisville and Nashville railroad shops at Mobile. McDougall arrived here from Mobile on Sept. 9. He was taken ill last Wednesday, and as his illness showed peculiar symptoms Health Officer White was called in consultation.

The doctors watched the case carefully, but it was not until yesterday that they were able to diagnose it as yellow fever. As soon as they were sure, Health Officer White had McDougall conveyed to the detention hospital.

ARROYO'S SLAYER FOUND OUT. The Late Chief of Police Confesses to Killing the President's Assailant.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 23.—Senor Don Eduardo Velasquez, late chief of police, has confessed that he directed the killing of Arroyo, the assailant of President Diaz. Velasquez was removed from office and placed in Belem prison on suspicion of having acquiesced in the killing of Arroyo. Yesterday, during the official investigation of the affair, the former chief of police was placed on the stand and asked to detail his connection with the matter. To all questions he responded that he was a great admirer of the president and that he felt that the scandalous attempt made upon his life merited severe punishment. The judge permitted this evasive reply for some time, and then ordered the inspector to reply directly to the questions. Seeing no escape the chief confessed without reservation the part he took in the tragedy.

Candido Cuellar, a groom in the service of Velasquez, was examined. He said on the night before the killing Don Eduardo had sent him to buy knives, which he had delivered over to his master without knowing for what reason he had been ordered to purchase them. The judge placed before Cuellar some of the knives used in the commission of the crime, mixed with others. Cuellar picked out without any hesitation those he had purchased.

FATALLY BITTEN BY RATS.

Terrible Death of a Baby Left Alone in Its Cradle.

FORT WAYNE, Sept. 23.—A terrible story comes from Lake township, a few miles east of Fort Wayne, of the killing of the 7-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. George Auer. While the family were at dinner in an adjoining room the baby, supposed to be asleep in her cradle, gave vent to agonized screams. The mother rushed to her child in time to see five enormous rats scurry away from the cradle. The bites of the rodents were plainly evident on the infant's face. Dr. Geary of Coesee was called, but his efforts to save the child's life were futile. The rat bite acted like the striking of a rattlesnake, and the infant died in a few hours from blood poisoning. The mother is almost crazed with grief.

DEADLY CYCLONE.

Many People Killed and a Vast Amount of Property Destroyed.

BRINDISI, Italy, Sept. 23.—A cyclone swept over Sava, Orio and Latiano, all the province of Lecce, yesterday. Forty persons were killed, 70 people were wounded, 20 houses were destroyed and telegraphic communication with the scene of the disaster was cut off.

At Oria the railway depot was demolished and all the railroad men engaged there were killed. Two chateaux and 30 houses were destroyed in a neighboring village, where 20 were killed and 24 injured.

At Mesagne, a province of Lecce, 15 were killed and five injured.

Great tracts of country have been devastated by the hurricane.

A Woman May Hang.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 23.—Susie Lane, who murdered her husband, Moses Lane, about four months ago, has just been found guilty of murder in the first degree after a trial lasting one week. She will doubtless hang. The Lane woman, during a quarrel with her husband, stabbed him in the neck with a butcher knife, killing him instantly. The defense tried to show that the fatal wound was self-inflicted. The Lane woman is a sister of Alderman Tyree of the Fourth ward.

Tramps Fire Freight Cars.

UNION CITY, Ind., Sept. 23.—Early yesterday morning tramps set fire to the loose straw in a number of empty refrigerator cars standing on the Big Four tracks, totally destroying them, and causing considerable loss. But for the timely work of a local crew who used an engine in moving the cars to a safe place, everything standing in the yards would have been consumed, as it would have been impossible for the fire department to reach them.

Duke Frederick William Drowned.

HAMBURG, Sept. 23.—Torpedo boat No. 26 has capsized and sunk near the first lightship off Cuxhaven. Eight of her crew, including her commander, Duke Frederick William of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, were drowned. The duke was born in 1871, held the rank of lieutenant in the German navy and was a brother of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin. A salvage steamer has gone to the scene of the disaster.

Canning Factory Employees Strike.

SHARPSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 23.—One hundred and twenty-five tomato peelers employed in the canning factory went out on a strike at 8:30 a.m. yesterday. They ask for 3 cents, an increase of half a cent a bucket. At 9 o'clock the bucket carriers and labelers went out. The company refuses to grant the demand, and there is no possibility of a settlement yet. The factory is glutted with tomatoes.

Illinois Miners Return to Work.

LACON, Ills., Sept. 23.—One thousand miners returned to work at Toloca this morning, accepting the 64 cents per ton rate. All of the Marshall county mines will soon be in operation.

Charles Andrew Vanneck Dead.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Charles Andrew Vanneck, third Baron Huntingfield, is dead. He was born in 1818 and was a deputy lieutenant of Suffolk.

JAPAN'S TREACHERY.

Troops Sent to Hawaii Under the Guise of Laborers.

ANNEXATION WILL BE RESISTED.

It Is Said That Over One Thousand Well Drilled Men Have Already Been Land ed There and About Four Hundred Veterans of the Japan-China War Are Expected Upon the Next Steamer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—If the stories told by the passengers and crew of the steamship City of Peking which arrived here from Hong-Kong via Honolulu on Tuesday evening be true, a state of affairs exists in Hawaii which demands the attention of the state department. When the City of Peking arrived at Honolulu, the attention of the other passengers on board that steamer was attracted by the remarkably symmetrical movements of 174 Japanese steerage passengers who were disembarking. Although classed as laborers, their well drilled and military appearance was too palpable to escape observation and occasioned considerable comment.

The Japanese were apparently under the command of a veteran sergeant and divided into squads of 20, under non-commissioned officers. During the voyage a military discipline was observed which created comment among the other steerage passengers and steamer's crew, and many conjectures were hazarded as to the meaning of their being shipped to the islands. It was generally believed that they were sent to the islands for the purpose of forcibly resisting annexation if necessary.

Rumors of the presence of the mikado's soldiers are not new on the islands, and it is said that over 1,000 well drilled men have already been landed there and about 400 veterans of the Japan-China war are expected upon the next steamer.

ANNEXATION CERTAIN.

Congress Will Ratify the Treaty as Soon as It Meets.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The ratification of the annexation treaty by Hawaii leaves the question in such a shape that there will be no delay in the annexation of Hawaii, after congress meets.

The little opposition which has existed in the senate to the annexation treaty has been growing less and none of those who have been actively advocating the treaty have the least doubt of its prompt acceptance by the senate. This will be the first important work taken up and disposed of when congress reassembles.

ONLY ONE OUTBREAK.

Soldiers on Duty at Hazelton Had but Little to Do.

HAZELTON, Pa., Sept. 23.—The peace of the anthracite district was disturbed by only one outbreak yesterday. When the men at Pardee & Harwood colliery reported for work, a crowd of strikers, led by women, assembled about the mine, and there made threats of vengeance to the workers and were so menacing that troops were asked for. A detachment of cavalry was sent over and remained the greater part of the day. There was no further trouble, but only a small majority of the miners were courageous enough to work.

With the exception of the Jeanesville colliery of the Lehigh Valley company and the Harwood men, who did not go back, all the mines in the region were working, though not with full complement of men.

Circleville Must Wait.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The post office department finds that it will be unable to start the free-delivery service at Circleville O., on Oct. 1, as expected. As the examination for letter-carriers does not take place until next Saturday, the civil service commission will not be able to mark the papers and prepare the eligible list so that the department can appoint the carriers by Oct. 1.

Anse Hatfield Wanted For Forgery.

BROWNSTOWN, W. Va., Sept. 23.—Anse Hatfield, son of "Devil" Anse Hatfield, who shot ex-Policeman Feeley at Ironon, O., Sunday, is wanted in Boone county for forgery. He came to this city last week and went through Boone county purchasing ginseng from several merchants and giving checks that were worthless. He went by the name of Hall and several other names.

Boston the Successful Bidder.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Sept. 23.—The selection of the next meeting place of the sovereign grand lodge Odd Fellows was made a special order yesterday. Six invitations were received, Tampa, Fla.; Detroit, Richmond, Boston, Baltimore and Hot Springs, Ark., competing. Boston was selected after a strong fight.

BOSTON, Sept. 23.—Base Ball Managers Hanlon and Selee had a conference over the telephone yesterday and decided that the first three games for the Temple cup be played in this city Oct. 4, 5 and 6. The second three games will be played in Baltimore Oct. 9, 11 and 12.

Addington's Neck Saved.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The president has commuted to imprisonment for life the death sentence imposed upon C. L. Addington in western Texas for murder. Addington was to have been hanged on the 24th.

LUETGERT'S DEFENSE.

Heroic Effort Being Made to Break Down the State's Case.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—The first witnesses for the defense in the Luettgert trial were called yesterday and there will be three weeks of evidence tending to prove his innocence before the attorneys in the case commence their final arguments.

Attorney Vincent, for the defense, made the opening statement for Luettgert, and according to him the defense will be simple. It will consist chiefly of a general denial of all the expert evidence submitted by the state, proof that the caustic potash used in the vat was purchased by Luettgert for the purpose of making soap, and evidence tending to show that Mrs. Luettgert is alive, and in all probability in Germany. Concerning the rings found in the vat, Attorney Vincent said that they were not those of Mrs. Luettgert and that he would prove that she had never seen them, much less worn them. He also declared that he would bring witnesses to show that many of the bones identified by the experts for the prosecution as human bones are in reality those of the lower animals. He also asserted that Luettgert will go on the stand in his own defense.

During the afternoon session of court four witnesses were heard. The first witness called was ex-Judge A. A. Goodrich, a law partner of ex-Judge Vincent, chief counsel for the defense.

The witness said that on May 3 Luettgert came to his office, and with tears in his eyes informed him that Mrs. Luettgert had disappeared. It was on a Monday and Luettgert said his wife had left on the Saturday night previous—May 1. Luettgert told the witness that his wife was angry because Luettgert had lost his money and had left him. "I advised him to keep the matter out of the newspapers," said ex-Judge Goodrich. "I told him if his creditors, to whom he owed some $30,000, heard of the disappearance, Foreman Brothers would foreclose immediately."

Ralph R. Bradley, another law partner of Attorney Vincent, testified in a similar strain to the evidence of ex-Judge Goodrich.

"I saw him in my office May 4," said the witness. "Luettgert was very much depressed and shed tears as he related his troubles to me. He said he was not only in deep financial distress, but that his wife had left him. He feared his business would be ruined."

"What reason did he give for not making a search for her?" demanded State's Attorney Deneen.

"None, except that he desired to avoid publicity," replied the witness.

Adolph Elandt, a drayman, testified that on May 1 he took three barrels of grease and tallow to Luettgert's sausage factory. He understood the stuff was to be used in making soap. One day toward the close of April, the witness said, he was at the Luettgert factory and saw Mrs. Luettgert, who seemed to be depressed. She remarked during a conversation that nearly everything was gone, and she thought she would go pretty soon and work on a farm where no one knew her.

Rosa Gleich of 1859 North Paulina street, Lakeview, a young woman with an original dialect, was called to the witness stand to impeach the evidence of Emma Schimpke, who testified for the prosecution and said she saw Luettgert and his wife going from the Luettgert residence to the sausage factory about 10 o'clock on the night of May 1. Gottlieba Schimpke, a younger sister of Emma, also testified to this fact, but as the child afterward admitted she did not know what state or county she was living in her evidence was of little value.

Rosa Gleich said that she was with the Schimpke girls on the night of May 1. They had all been to a dance. She declared positively that neither of the Schimpke girls had seen either Luettgert or his wife that night and that since she testified Emma Schimpke had admitted to the witness that she had sworn falsely, and tried to get her to do the same, telling her she must not be on Luettgert's side."

"Emma Schimpke said to me that it was the prattle of her sister that got her into the case," said the witness, "and she testified to suit the side that called her."

GIVEN A NEW FACE.

Melvyn Operations by Surgeons at a Children's Hospital.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23.—A wonderful surgical operation has been performed by Drs. Parsons and McCaughan of the children's hospital, upon 9-year-old Lillie Statenus. They constructed for her a palate and a nose and upper lip. She is an orphan and was sent to the hospital from the Episcopal orphans' home.

Her face was deformed and frightful to look upon. The surgeons saw but one way to remedy it and that was by an operation, which was done. The palate was gone and her nose had grown over and attached itself to her hairlip. The case was a singular one and called forth the most delicate of surgical work. The operation was successful, even beyond the anticipation of the surgeons.

"I THINK the lax enforcement of the law has brought about this disgraceful act at the hands of lynchers in Ripley County," said Governor Mount of Indiana, in a statement concerning the Verailles mob. And the Governor is right.

THE lynchings in Ohio and Indiana have knocked the wind out of the sails of Mrs. Francis E. Willard, ex-President Harrison and such like, who were concerned only about lynchings of a dark complexion that might occur south of Mason and Dixon's line.

THE East is worried over the growth of the export trade through southern ports. After an elaborate review of the changes the Philadelphia Record remarks: "The southerly drift of the export trade in wheat and corn is something more serious than the result of discrimination by the railroad companies in favor of southern ports. It is due to natural advantages. It is doubtful if the establishment of a ship canal from the lakes to the seaboard would serve to recover to northern ports a preponderance which is no longer made secure by a superiority of facility. Trade follows the line of least resistance. It gravitates southward."

THE United States government appears to be very anxious to get supplies into the Klondyke regions, but we fail to see what the government has to do with the matter. There is no more reason for sending aid to the hungry there than to the hungry in New York City or Louisville. Indeed, there is much less reason for such a course. These speculators have "taken their chances;" they have gone in with eyes wide open, willing to risk everything for a fortune. It is difficult to see why the money of patient, toiling workers of this country should be used to aid the Klondykers to get great fortunes.—Louisville Post.

Probably, the administration is anxious to increase our supply of gold. If the crowd up there were silver miners President McKinley and his Cabinet would let them starve.

A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many years' study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless article.

What The State Weather Bureau Has to Say of the Outlook—Weekly Report.

[For Week Ending September 20th.]

The week opened with excessive heat prevailing in all parts of the State. From the 10th to the 16th inclusive the maximum daily temperature over the State averaged 98°. A number of correspondents report a temperature of 104° on the 12th and 14th. Such intense heat was never known before in this section so late in the season. At least it surpassed all records of September weather for the past twenty-six years at Louisville. The mean daily temperature averaged about 15° in excess of the normal for all sections. The heat spell was broken on the 16th, when a change to cooler was heralded by local showers in many parts of the State. As a rule they were light and occurred mainly in the counties adjacent to the Ohio river, except in the Central section, where they extended as far as the bluegrass region. In Union, Jefferson, Nelson, Shelby, Fayette, Madison and several counties in the northern portion of the State the rainfall was sufficient to prepare the ground for plowing. Crops of all kinds yet outstanding in these counties derived some benefit from these showers, but they came too late to materially affect the growth of corn, which was the main staple yet unharvested.

Over the State generally the crop situation has not at this writing changed much since our last report, except that the work of shocking corn and cutting tobacco has been prosecuted most vigorously. It is now estimated that about one-half of the corn crop is in shock and three-fourths of the tobacco is housed. Only a small portion of the crops remained in the field liable to damage by frost, which seemed imminent at the close of the week. A number of our correspondents in districts where considerable corn is yet uncultivated say it is already safe from possible injury by frost. Late corn is of so little account in most parts of the State that farmers are not paying much attention to it. They are cutting the early planted as rapidly as possible, and most correspondents say it will all be in shock within the next week or ten days.

Western Section.—The situation in this section is that of winding up the crop-growing season. Corn and tobacco, matured or not matured, are being cut as rapidly as possible. Not that the farmers dread the prospect of a damaging frost, but because the extreme heat and drought have reduced these crops to such a condition that nothing can now improve them. As corn is being laid away a careful estimate of the yield in this section places it at from two-fifths to one-half the average crop. Tobacco will not exceed one-third of a crop. Brisk to high winds on Thursday blew down immense quantities of winter apples. Farmers are still compelled to haul water to their cattle or drive them long distances. The situation is becoming very distressing. Very little plowing has yet been done.

Eastern Section.—Farm work as it now progresses is the same in this as in the Western section, except that farmers proceed with it in a happier mood. They have reason to be more cheerful than their neighbors in the western half of the State, because their crop prospects are about 40 per cent. better. Corn is estimated at fully three-fourths the average yield, and tobacco at two-thirds. The warm weather hastened the maturity of corn. It is not, however, of uniform growth, being spotted and burned in certain localities owing to the uneven distribution of rainfall. Tobacco is being rapidly removed from the field, and by the close of next week there will be none of it exposed to damage by frost. Stock is beginning to suffer from the effects of dry weather. Irish potatoes and turnips will not make half a crop.

J. W. McCORD, of Scott County, last year had twelve acres in tobacco. He raised seventeen hogsheads on this field. He sold ten hogsheads of the lot for $2,006.34 and will sell the remaining seven later. F. E. JANOWITZ, formerly agent of the C. and O. and L. and N. at this point, swore out a warrant in the Police Court at Cincinnati Wednesday morning against L. W. Foster, of Foster & Co., on the charge of keeping a bucket shop and selling stocks on margin. Janowitz's story is that he left money to be placed on stock and failure to carry out his order lost him $500.

THE comparative statement of the Louisville and Nashville gross earnings for the second week of September shows that the road earned $42,865, against $39,650 for the corresponding week of last year. This is an increase of $44,215. Of this increase $42,145 is from freight traffic and $4,600 from passenger traffic. Earnings from miscellaneous sources show a decrease of $2,530.

BLOOD was spilled in the Democratic county convention at Lexington Wednesday morning. The delegates after an exciting fight nominated Joseph D. Humphreys candidate for the Legislature. Bad blood had existed between between James B. Clay and John H. Hostetter for some months and when Clay accused Hostetter with having pocketed the credentials they came to blows. Clay was badly bruised about the face before they could be separated. Both men are brave and many feared further trouble, but after the convention they shook hands upon Clay receiving an apology from Hostetter.

LEEVER AND NEWTON.

Two Ex-Maysville Pitchers Who Are Making Their Mark in the Baseball World.

[Louisville Post.]

"If Newton, of the Norfolk team, who joins us when we get back home, isn't a success for us on the slab, then I'm no judge of a ball player," is the statement of Hans Wagner. "I've played against him in the Atlantic Association and think he is one of the greatest pitchers that ever wore shoe leather. He is a big fellow with a world of speed and a great drop ball, which he backs with a wise head and he knows how to field his position. He is without doubt the best pitcher in the Atlantic Association and when a slabman can get away with game as he has to do great work."

Adam Rothfuss, who was here with the Pirates, was also enthusiastic over Newton, and tried to get the Pittsburgh people to buy him but could not make it.

Pitcher Leever, of Richmond, who has just been signed by Pittsburg, is another of the good things that Manager Hanlon was angling for. It seems, however, that anything that Hanlon thinks is good is at once snapped up. Manager Jake Wells, of the Richmonds, thinks that Leever is a crackerjack, and his record this year certainly bears out his opinion. Leever is twenty-four years old, five feet ten inches in height, and weighs 180 pounds. He is a school teacher, and is styled "the Professor" by the boys.

THE MAYSVILLE FAIR.

Clay Pigeon Shoots the Events of Wednesday Afternoon—Another Big Shoot

This Afternoon—Grand Balloon Ascensions—The Wild West.

Maysville's old time fair opened Wednesday with about the usual "first day" crowd in attendance. For some reason or other people don't turn out on opening day. It would take a big special attraction to induce them to do so. Maysville is not alone in this respect; it is the experience of all fairs that last three or four days.

The clay pigeon shoot was a feature of Wednesday's events. Mr. K. S. Waddell, a representative of the DuPont Powder Works, was present to start things off right. He is one of the crack shots of the country and participated in two of the events yesterday. The contests Wednesday were more for the purpose of getting the sportsmen in trim for this afternoon's big shoot. Danville carried off the honors. Four gentlemen took part in each of the two events, Mr. Waddell, of Cincinnati, Mr. W. D. Cushman, of Dover, Mr. W. P. Woodcock and Dr. Marsh, of Danville. Each event was at ten pigeons, the entrance money being divided between the two best shots. Mr. Woodcock won both, Dr. Marsh getting second money in first, and Cushman, Waddell and Marsh tying in second. The summary:

First Shoot.

	Hit.	Missed.
Woodcock	10	0
Marsh	8	2
Waddell	7	3
Cushman	7	3

Second Shoot.

	Hit.	Missed.
Woodcock	9	1
Waddell	7	3
Cushman	7	3
Marsh	7	3

Judge Wadsworth, Mr. Henry Wadsworth, Mr. Woodcock, Dr. Marsh and Mr. John McRoberts participated in a small practice shoot afterwards that resulted as follows:

Hit. Missed.

	Hit.	Missed.
Woodcock	5	0
McRoberts	5	0
Marsh	4	1
Judge Wadsworth	3	2
Henry Wadsworth	2	3

Out of 25 shots yesterday Mr. Woodcock "killed" twenty-four birds.

The principal shoot this afternoon will be participated in by ten men, for a stake of $50.—$30 to first, $15 to second and $5 to third man.

Following is a list of the premiums awarded in the arena:

STRUCK A GUSHER.

Mr. Gus Emmett in Luck at Lima, Ohio.
His Company Has Made a Big Strike.

[Lima, O., Gazette, September 17th.]

The Roundhead strike is a big one. The wildcat that was, when drilled in, only considered good for a twenty barrel well at best, will now be a surprise if it produces less than 150 barrels a day. It showed 130 feet of dead oil in the hole when drilled in, and now at intervals the precious fluid flows in a stream the full capacity of the casing and each flow is stronger and continues for a greater length of time than the one before. The first flow was made yesterday afternoon. Charley Keller, D. A. Emmett and Pete Cunningham had driven over from here in the morning with hearts that were not the lightest and upon arriving at the well they had the boiler fired up and enough steam generated to run the boiler windlass. After dinner they ran the boiler down to see how much oil there was in the hole and would not have been surprised to have found less than 200 feet marked on the boiler rope when it was drawn up again, but as the hemp ascended they found it had been immersed in the much sought for crude to a depth of 600 feet. The boiler had no sooner been returned to its corner of the derrick than they noticed a bubbling sound issuing from the well. "Put out the fire," yelled Cunningham, who knew what was coming, and while Keller and Emmett were smothering the embers in the fire box beneath the boiler, a fountain of oil arose in the center of the derrick almost drowning a driller and rapidly forming a small lake within the banks of earth that had been thrown up around the derrick before the well was shot. The well owners shouted and danced around the place like a small band of Comanche Indians doing the sun dance, and several excited men and boys who had gathered around when the boiler was fired up were seen tearing down the road in buggies, on bicycles and afoot as though the proprietor of hades himself was chasing them. Keller, Cunningham and Emmett laughed to themselves for a few minutes, thinking that the people, who had never before witnessed the flowing of an oil well, had become frightened and were fleeing for their lives as if from the eruption of a volcano, but they were wrong, as they soon learned, for down the road from the village of Roundhead, a mile and a half distant, people came as fast as possible, loaded into and onto every available conveyance and many people brought up the rear afoot. Almost the entire population of the village turned out. Stores and shops were vacated as rapidly as the news spread and great excitement prevailed.

The well made two strong flows early in the afternoon, and Messrs. Keller, Cunningham and Emmett hastened back to this city and sent men and material to the scene to provide tanks for the production.

The owners of the well are Messrs. Amos Keller, Charles Keller, Dr. Huntley, Peter Cunningham, Frank Gould and D. A. Emmett, (formerly of Maysville, Ky.). They located the well by the use of Amos Keller's invention, and their estimation as to the value of that machine has gone up several notches since yesterday morning.

Commodore Val P. Collins, the coal king of Cincinnati, accompanied by his wife, is visiting the family of Superintendent G. W. Blatterman and attending the fair.
